THE King, who went to Friedensbourg the Beginning of last Week, returned here on Friday; and that Night there was a grand Appearance at Court of the Nobility and Gentry. The Queen continues in perfect Health, and we are in daily Expectation of her Delivery. They talk already of forming a Camp next Summer; and Orders are shortly expected to be issued for furnishing the necessary Magazines of Provision and Forage for that Purpose.

The same Day her Imperial Majesty declared the Count de Loser, Hereditary Marshal of the Electorate of Saxony, and General Arnimb, heretofore the Saxon Minister at this Court, to be Knights of the Order of St. Andrew.

And the Friday following M. de Galliczin gave a publick Masquerade. M.
